Live an afternoon as a shepherd, immerse yourself in nature and taste the dairy products of the farm. It is a unique experience in touch with nature, history and small local producers. You will learn about the history of the Antonič Farm and, together with the shepherd, you will take the 200 sheep of their flock to graze on the paths of Hermada Mount. On the way back, there will be the opportunity to taste farm-produced cheeses and some other local products.
